

THE PATHE

All Phonographs In One

The PATHE PHONOGRAPH is known to music lovers the country over for its marvelous method of reproduction.

It will play difficult selections of any producer. There is noticeable at once a new life and beauty of tone hitherto unvoiced.

The Longer You Play It The Sweeter It Grows

The PATHE plays all records. It is a masterpiece. To really appreciate it, you must hear it. The home of the PATHE is Jokerst-Yealy Mercantile Co.

Died

William D. Hund, beloved husband of Genevieve Hund, nee Metcalf, and dear father of Estelle, Leo, Blanche, Raymond and Virginia Hund, and dear brother of Mrs. Oscar Seale and Joseph Hund, died at his home in St. Louis, Monday, December 22, 1919, at 2 o'clock a. m., in his fifty-third year. The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the family residence 1131 North Leonard Ave., to St. Alphonsus Church, thence to Calvary Cemetery.

William Armbruster, died at his home at Kinsey, Mo., Saturday night, December 20, 1919, at 8:30 o'clock, after a lingering illness, aged 40 years, 10 months and 19 days. The deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Armbruster. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice Armbruster, nee Aubuchon, and three children, Lucas, Wilburn and Mildred. He also leaves two brothers and one sister, Henry Armbruster of Ste. Genevieve and Mary, Mrs. John Holst and John Armbruster of Danby. The burial took place at Bloomsdale Monday morning at nine o'clock. Henry Herzog and mother, Mrs. Leon Herzog and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Armbruster of Ste. Genevieve attended the funeral.

Mrs. Nellie Lipps, nee Stauss, wife of Robert Lipps of Festus died at Phoenix, Arizona, Saturday December 13, 1919, of tuberculosis, where she had gone some time ago for her health, aged 29 years. Besides her husband she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stauss and brother William J. Stauss of Festus, and a sister Mrs. Charles Jennings of Arizona. The remains were brought to her home at Festus, and the funeral took place Sunday afternoon, December 21, at 2 o'clock. John H. Baumgartner of Ste. Genevieve attended the funeral.

Two benefactors, who do not desire their names to be divulged, have informed Rev. Father C. L. van Turenhout that they would furnish the funds for the completion of an artistic baldachino, consisting entirely of cream colored Texas marble, to be placed over the marble high altar in the Church of Ste. Genevieve. Work is progressing rapidly on the order, and unless unforeseen difficulties in shipping arise, the work will be finished and in place by next March. The work will entail an outlay of over $3,800.00. At the same time two additional side altars of marble have been ordered, to be made of the same material. One of these will be given by the Sodality B. V. M. The altar of the sorrowful mother is awaiting a donor.

The Feast of Ste. Genevieve, Patron Saint of the parish of Ste. Genevieve, and the titular saint of this town and county will be observed in the Catholic Church in the traditional manner on Saturday, January 3, 1920. There will be a Solemn High Mass at ten o'clock. The panegyric will be preached by the Rev. E. T. Lavery, D. D., pastor of the Holy Rosary Church, St. Louis. After the Mass the visiting clergy will be entertained at dinner, the guests of the local clergy.

The Missouri State Fair Dates for next year have been fixed for August 7th to 14th, 1920.

Married

Miss Ouida Brooks and A. C. Vasterling, of Cape Girardeau, were married in St. Louis Christmas evening. Both parties are members of well-known old families of Missouri. Mr. Vasterling is one of the most widely known insurance men in Southeast Missouri. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Andrew Siebert of this city, and has many friends here who join with us in wishing them much success and happiness.

Miss Pearl Brickey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Brickey of Prairie du Rocher, Ill., and J. Wilbur Gonterman, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gonterman of Granite City, Ill., were married Saturday evening December 20, 1919, at 8:30 o'clock at the Washington Hotel, St. Louis. Rev. Father Gilfillan officiating.

Thomas D. Casey and Ruby J. Cummings of East St. Louis, Ill., were married in Ste. Genevieve, Tuesday December 23, 1919, by Justice of the Peace Joseph H. Vorst.

Automobile Laprobes at Lelie's.

The Festus and Ste. Genevieve basket ball teams played a game at the High School Auditorium last Saturday night to a large and appreciative audience. The score was 43 to 34 in favor of the Festus Club.

If you want Butter, Cottage Cheese, Butter Milk or Skim Milk telephone Creamery.

BOVERIE STORE CO.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

FIFTY YEARS FAMOUS FOR QUALITY

On Sunday December 28th at 3 p. sharp, the children of the parochial school will present a beautiful Christmas play entitled, "There Was No Room In The Inn." The proceeds will be for the benefit of the school.

Fresh meat and Groceries of all kinds always on hand. Fred S. Oberle's Meat Market.

Seventeen stalls of the Missouri Pacific Railroad roundhouse at De Soto were burned last week, resulting in a damage of $10,000 to the building and about $7,000 to equipment, according to official reports.

The Pine tree on the north end of the church block has been beautifully lit up with electric lights and will shine forth every evening from Christmas eve until Sunday after New Year. Under it an artistic representation of the manger in Bethlehem has been placed. This is a great attraction for the young, and adds materially to the Christmas spirit and Christmas celebration.

Fresh oysters every Friday at John J. Oberle's Meat Market.

Announcing The Opening OF The Armory Theatre

A Picture House where the quality of the offering is the first consideration

Sunday

December 28, 1919

The Programme

For the opening night we present a series of attractions never before equalled for entertainment value in Ste Genevieve.

ALICE BRADY in "The Indestructable Wife"

A Select Picture. Need we say more, Mutt and Jeff Cartoon

WM. FARNUM in "The Jungle Trail"

A Fox Picture and Fox Pictures Please Harold Lloyd Comedy

Tuesday

Sessue Hayakawa in "The Courageous Coward"

A five Part Feature in addition to the Eighth Episode "ELMO THE MIGHTY"

Thursday

Alice Brady in "His Bridal Night"

Select Pictures leave nothing to be desired. THE COMEDY Snub Pollard in "How Dry I Am"

Unlimited seating facilities and furnace heat assures you of comfort as well as enjoyment.

Paramount Presents

MARGUERITE CLARK

as LOVEY MARY in

'MRS. WIGGS OF THE CABBAGE PATCH'

It has been many moons since Miss Clark has shown herself in so appealing a picture,—it gets under your skin.

Our patrons will please remember that this is a new picture, and a 100 percent improvement over the Mrs. Wiggs we showed about 4 years ago.

MARGUERITE CLARK, you know!

FATTY ARBUCKLE

And Al. St. John in "THE WAITERS' BALL" If you want to laugh, don't miss Fatty

"Visit To The Thousand Isles"

LYRIC, SUNDAY, DEC. 28th ORCHESTRA